Born on July 26, 1926, in Denver, CO, he was the son of Herman and Alma (Freres) Meyer. He graduated from Kansas City-Southwest High School and attended Northwestern University in Chicago. He served in the United States Air Force from 1945-1947 in Italy. On June 7, 1947, he was united in marriage to Rosemary Humpidge in Chicago. During their marriage, the couple lived in Chicago, Michigan City, IN, and Marshalltown. Wayne was employed at Dunham-Bush in Marshalltown. He volunteered at Marshalltown Medical and Surgical Center as a greeter, which he enjoyed very much. He was a member of the YMCA in Marshalltown. Wayne was one of the founders of Little League in Marshalltown, and he helped to build the ball diamonds for them. His interests were playing golf, the Chicago Cubs, and everything about the Iowa Hawkeyes.

In death, he has rejoined his parents and a sister, Marilyn Mann.
