

OBITUARIES

Marsha Frisbie, 78

Marsha Frisbie, 78, formerly of Marshalltown, died Tuesday, Feb. 4, 2003 at Grandview Heights Care Center while under the care of the Iowa River Hospice.

Services were Friday, Feb. 8 at the Estel-Perrin-Avey Chapel with Pastor Bobby Shomo officiating. She was laid to rest at Rose Hill Memorial Gardens. A memorial fund is being established.

Born Sept. 17, 1924 in Cooper, Texas, she was the daughter of Leo and Myrtle Black Mills. She was raised and educated in Lake Creek, Texas.

She was married to Harry Frisbie on April 17, 1943 in Long Beach, CA. They resided the majority of their married life in Marshalltown.

She was employed at Fisher Controls for 33 years and was a member of the UAW.

Surviving are three children: Barbara (Mrs. Fred) Fehrmann of Marshalltown; Patricia (Mrs. David) Beem of Marshalltown and Ray (Patricia) Brown of Loomis, CA. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren 11 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandson. Two brothers and three sisters are survive: Bobby Mills and Billy Mills of California, Ella Mae Brekke of Oregon, Dorothy Rogers of Oregon and Jean Baty of Marshalltown.

Preceding her in death were her husband in 1969, her parents, a daughter, a son and one sister.