LOOKING BACK

BY SHIRLEY SCHAPER

Twenty Years Ago—May 9, 1907

A crew of workmen is engaged in raising and putting a new foundation under I.L. Patton & Co.'s elevator.

Word was received here Tuesday afternoon announcing the death of Carrie Mills at Freeley, Colorado. Miss Mills was once well known in State Center, being the daughter of the late R.A. Mills, who was engaged with W.J. Nichols in the hardware business in the early days.
