

Moorhead, Gladys
d 10-5-1933

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT OF COLLINS COMMUNITY

The following taken from a Spooner, Wis., paper, tells of the death of Miss Gladys Moorhead, niece of Mrs. Ira Bittner. The Moorheads formerly lived south of Collins and are well known here:

Gladys Moorhead Called By Death

Death's sad summons called from our midst Miss Gladys Moorhead, 25, her passing occurring at the Island City hospital in Cumberland, Md. Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Death was caused by pneumonia after an illness of a couple of weeks. She had been taken to the hospital about a week prior to her passing, her condition being considered critical, and all that loving hands and skilled medical attention could do proved of no avail, death exacting its precious toll.

Gladys Moorhead was born Oct. 1, 1908, at Osceola, Ia., and when a young girl was taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Moorhead. She grew to young womanhood at Fort Wayne, Ind., and came to the town of Evergreen with her parents in 1926, where the family has since resided. Miss Moorhead was popularly known in this community and her untimely passing is mourned by all. News of her death was received with genuine regret by her many friends.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Oct. 8, from the Methodist church in this city, Rev. Lockhart officiating, and interment took place in the Spooner cemetery. Deceased was a member of Hyacinth Chapter 128, Order of Eastern Star, of this city, also a member of the Presbyterian church.

Surviving besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead, are a brother, Hurchel, of Cleveland, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Walter Link of Maxwell, Ia., and an aunt, Mrs. Ira Bittner of Collins, Ia.

Collins
Gazette
10-19-1933