

Morrison, Clarence

d. 1966

Collins Clipper

Rites Held Monday For Clarence Morrison

Clarence Morrison, 63, a lifetime resident of the Collins community, died very suddenly at his home early Friday morning.

Services were held Monday at 2PM at the Collins Christian Church. Burial was at Evergreen Cemetery at Collins.

Survivors are his wife, Reva, and his mother, Mrs. Mary Morrison of State Center.

Clarence had been a farmer in the Collins vicinity all his adult working life.

OBITUARY

Clarence Link Morrison, eldest son of William and Mary Link Morrison, was born on a farm south of Collins on August 21, 1902, and departed this life at his home in Collins, June 24, 1966.

He was married to Reva Borts on May 1, 1927 and they have continuously lived in the Collins community. As a youth he united with the Christian Church and continued this membership.