

Death of John Morrison

John Morrison died at home west of Rhodes Sunday. He was 76 years of age. He formerly lived in Collins and leaves many friends in Collins twp. who are deeply sorry to hear of his death.

The funeral was at the M. E. church of Rhodes Tuesday. Services were conducted by the pastor. A large audience was present. Among Collins people in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Vasey and son Harold, Eva and John King and W. T. B. Shenkle.

Deceased is survived by his devoted wife, five sons and two daughters, viz: Tom Morrison of Waterloo; Henry of Des Moines; Frank, Fred and Charley of Rhodes; Mrs. Dr. Mills of McCallsburg and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Rhodes.

The interment took place at the Rhodes Cemetery.

The deceased was greatly endeared to his wife and family and his friendships were loyal and abiding. He was a truly good man and his memory will be long cherished in the hearts of those that knew him.

We deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones.

Morrison, John D. 3-14-1909

Collins Gazette
3-18-1909