

Nevada Journal
23 May 2002

Muriel A. Muilenburg
May 23, 2002

Died May 19, 2002

Muriel A. Muilenburg, 97, of Marshalltown, died of cancer May 19 at the Marshalltown Medical and Surgical Hospital.

A lifelong Marshalltown resident, she lived as a homemaker and housewife. She married Arthur Myers in 1924 in Des Moines. She was a member of the Salvation Army church in Marshalltown.

Survivors include two sons, David Myers of Hailey, Idaho, and Dale Myers of McCallsburg.

Her husband preceded her in death.

Her remains were donated to the University of Iowa. There will be no services. Fredregill Funeral Home, Zearing, handled arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2002

Clarence Eldon Sargent
May 23, 2002

Oct. 17, 1917, to May 15, 2002

Clarence Eldon Sargent, 84, of Indianola, formerly of the Maxwell area, died Wednesday, May 15, at the Westview Care Center of Indianola from pneumonia.

He was born Oct. 17, 1917, near Maxwell, to C.A. "Artie" and Ida (Yoder) Sargent. He married Marie Nelsen May 5, 1939, in Des Moines. He graduated from Farrar High School in 1935. In 1955, his family moved to Minnesota, where he farmed and worked as an electrician. He retired in 1976 and in 2000, he and Marie moved to Indianola. He enjoyed fishing, woodworking and was an avid sports fan.

Survivors include his wife, Marie, of Indianola; a son, Bill (and Lucy) Sargent of Indianola; a daughter, Pat (and Bill) Peavey of Nevada; four grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and seven step-grandchildren; two brothers, Merle Sargent and Morris Sargent, both of Maxwell; a sister, Elva Denton of Maxwell; and a sister-in-law, Marjorie Sargent of Collins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, Willard and LeRoy, and a sister, Ruth Haines.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell with Pastor Robert Harting officiating. Burial was in the Mount Zion Cemetery near Maxwell.

©Nevada Journal 2002

Edwin Arthur Webster

May 23, 2002

Dec. 29, 1925, to May 19, 2002

Edwin Arthur Webster, 76, of Colo, died of congestive heart failure on Sunday, May 19, at his home in Colo.

He was born Dec. 29, 1925, in Cairo, Ill., to William S. and Pauline (Chenault) Webster. He received a B.A. degree from Iowa State University. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He married Donna Jo Cummings on Nov. 4, 1949, in Des Moines. He retired from Alcoa in 1983. He was a member of the United Methodist Church in Colo and enjoyed golfing, playing bridge and performing in amateur theater. He had been a resident of Colo for the past nine years.

Survivors include his wife, Donna, of Colo; three sons, Edwin "Mark" Webster of Cleveland, Ohio, William "Thomas" Webster of the Philippines, and Donald "Bradley" Webster of Colo; and seven grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Private family memorial services will be held Friday, May 24, at the United Methodist Church in Colo with Pastor Lee Williamson officiating. Military graveside rites will be conducted by the Colo American Legion Post No. 139 in the Colo Cemetery. A memorial fund has been established for Homeward Hospice of Ames or the Colo First Responders. Chet Ryan Mortuary, Nevada, handled arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2002

David John Sandquist

February 07, 2002

June 28, 1913, to Jan. 29, 2002

David John Sandquist, 88, of Maxwell, died Jan. 29, at the Israel Family Hopsice House in Ames from congestive heart failure.

He was born June 28, 1913, in Ankeny to George and Martha Sandquist. He graduated from Ankeny High School. He married Lorraine Hutton on Aug. 13, 1938, in Indianola, and they lived on a farm in the Maxwell and Cambridge area from 1939 to 1978, when they moved into Maxwell. Farming was David's love and passion. He started the family farm in 1939 and along with his son, Kenneth, continued to farm until a few months ago. He was a member of the Loring United Methodist Church and the Masonic Lodge in Maxwell. He enjoyed playing horseshoes, reading and spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors include four children, Martha Brown of Watertown, N.Y., John Sandquist of Urbandale, Kenneth Sandquist of Cambridge and Cindy Goertz of White Bear, Minn.; nine grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Lorraine on March 6, 1996; four brothers; and two sisters.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Loring United Methodist Church. Burial followed in the Maxwell Cemetery. Bacon Funeral Home, Maxwell, handled arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2002