The daughter of Anna and Lou Saak, she was born December 4, 1912 in Jasper County, Iowa and lived her early life there. A graduate of Baxter High School, she attended the former University of Commerce in Des Moines, Iowa. Elsie was secretary to the Plant Records Engineer of the former Northwestern Bell Telephone Company in Des Moines. She was married to Ralph Leo Munger, who was retired from the Army and contracts administrator of Bell Aircraft (Textron). She has lived in the DeVeaux area of Niagara Falls since 1955. Until recent years she was an active member of Calvary Lutheran Church and a 30 year volunteer at Niagara Falls Memorial Hospital. She also actively participated as a member in the Social Studies Club, St. James Senior Citizens and the Memorial Medical Center Auxilliary. Elsie is survived by her two daughters: Barbara Ann (Irvin) Anderson of Hurricane, Utah, and Linda Lou (Christopher) Haney of Apex, North Carolina, her four grandchildren Robert, Julie, Michael and Colleen, and one great-granddaughter. Elsie was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Ralph, her brother Wesley Saak and her sister Dehlia Kruse both of Baxter, Iowa.
