Lillie Maxine Myers

April 27, 1937, to Nov. 17, 2003

Lillie Maxine (Vickers) Myers, 66, passed away Monday, Nov. 17, at her home in Macon, Mo.

She was born April 27, 1937, in Marshalltown to Warren Archie and Mabel Faye (Shepard) Vickers. She was a 1954 graduate of State Center High School in State Center. She married Jackie Dean Myers on May 23, 1954. She was baptized June 12, 1960, in Nevada. She moved to Macon, Mo., in 1994. She spent her working years as a farm wife in Story County and Eagleville, Mo. She suffered with Multiple Sclerosis for many years. She was a member of the Andover Community of Christ Church in Andover, Mo.

Survivors include her daughter, Brenda Marie (and Steve) Coulson of Bevier, Mo.; daughter, Lisa Ann (and Jeff) Gibson of Ridgeway, Mo.; four grandchildren; three sisters, Lois Curley and Wilma Rankin, both of Macon, Mo., and Edna Davis of Humbolt; and one brother, Warren "Butch" Vickers of Loveland, Colo.

She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers and one sister.

The body was cremated under the direction of the Greening, Eagen, Hayes Funeral Home in Macon. A memorial service will be held Sunday, Nov. 30, at 3 p.m. at the Andover Community of Christ Church in Andover, Mo. Private burial will be at the Masonic Cemetery in Eagleville, Mo. In lieu of flowers, it would be appreciated if memorial gifts would be presented to the Andover Community of Christ Church.
