Lois Marguerite Pfeiffer

April 5, 1924, to March 4, 2002

Lois Marguerite Pfeiffer, 77, died Monday, March 4, of cancer in Ozark, Mo.

She was born April 5, 1924, in Fernald to John and Sarah (Bovender) Myers. She graduated from Shipley High School in 1942 and married Delbert Pfeiffer on July 27, 1967. She was a cook in the Auburn School for 16 years and retired in 1983. She also owned and operated an antique store in Auburn between 1967 and 1985. She lived in Maxwell from 1986 before moving to Ozark, Mo., last year. She was a member of the Maxwell Presbyterian Church and the Disabled American Veterans. She enjoyed sewing and continued her love of antiques.

Survivors include a stepson, Gary Smith of Heartville, Mo.; two stepdaughters, Dianna Cole of Springfield, Mo., and Judy Grant of Ozark, Mo.; six step-grandchildren; and 12 step-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, nine brothers and seven sisters.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 9, at the Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell with the Rev. Keith McDonald officiating. Burial was in the Maxwell Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Disabled American Veterans.
