

Nevada Journal

February 25, 2002

(Source: <http://www.zwire.com/site/news.cfm?brd=2033>)

George P. Nederhoff

May 24, 1930, to Feb. 12, 2002

George P. Nederhoff, 71, of Maxwell, died at his home Tuesday, Feb. 12, from a blood clot.

He was born May 24, 1930, near Wellsburg to Odie and Eita (Bunger) Nederhoff. He married Donna Fritzel on July 2, 1950, in Iowa Falls. He graduated from Wellsburg High School and attended the American Institute of Business College in Des Moines. He had farmed for 32 years near Wellsburg and then worked for Surge Dairy Equipment. He also worked for Mid America Dairyman in Des Moines before retiring. For the past five years, he has worked for Wal-Mart in Ankeny. He was a member of the Baxter Evangelical Free Church and a former 4-H Leader in Grundy County, where he also served for many years on the Grundy County Fair Board. He enjoyed yard work, water gardening, fish, birds and woodworking.

Survivors include his wife, Donna of Maxwell; a son, George Jr. (and Dixie) Nederhoff of Sumner; three grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; three step-great-grandchildren; two brothers, Henry of Wellsburg and Marvin of Grundy Center; and a sister, Pearl Van Soelen of Ames.

His parents and a brother, Arthur, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Friday, Feb. 15, at the Baxter Evangelical Free Church with Pastor Eugene Bucklin officiating. Burial was in the Holland Cemetery at Holland.

Memorials may be made to the George Nederhoff Memorial Fund. Bacon Funeral Home, Maxwell, handled arrangements.

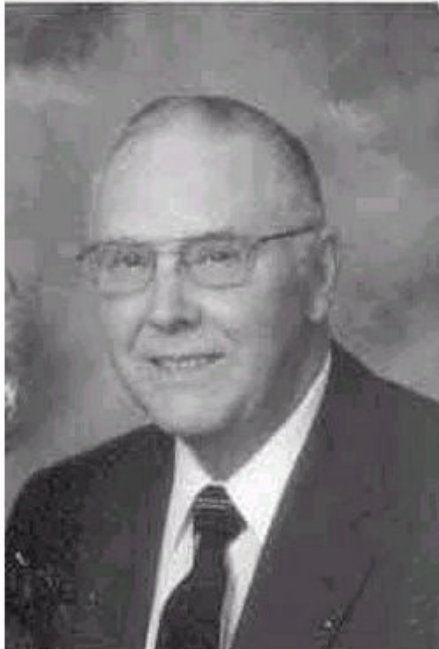

©Nevada Journal 2002

Obituaries

George P. Nederhoff

May 24, 1930, to Feb. 12, 2002

February 25, 2002

George P. Nederhoff, 71, of Maxwell, died at his home Tuesday, Feb. 12, from a blood clot.

He was born May 24, 1930, near Wellsburg to Odie and Eita (Bunger) Nederhoff. He married Donna Fritzel on July 2, 1950, in Iowa Falls. He graduated from Wellsburg High School and attended the American Institute of Business College in Des Moines. He had farmed for 32 years near Wellsburg and then worked for Surge Dairy Equipment. He also worked for Mid America Dairyman in Des Moines before retiring. For the past five years, he has worked for Wal-Mart in Ankeny. He was a member of the Baxter Evangelical Free Church and a former 4-H Leader in Grundy County, where he also served for many years on the Grundy County Fair Board. He enjoyed yard work, water gardening, fish, birds and woodworking.

Survivors include his wife, Donna of Maxwell; a son, George Jr. (and Dixie) Nederhoff of Sumner; three grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; three step-great-grandchildren; two brothers, Henry of Wellsburg and Marvin of Grundy Center; and a sister, Pearl Van Soelen of Ames.

His parents and a brother, Arthur, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Friday, Feb. 15, at the Baxter Evangelical Free Church with Pastor Eugene Bucklin officiating. Burial was in the Holland Cemetery at Holland. Memorials may be made to the George Nederhoff Memorial Fund. Bacon Funeral Home, Maxwell, handled arrangements.