OBITUARIES

Bernadine Knuth

June 22, 1915-Aug. 12, 2004

Bernadine Knuth, 89, 819 Dryden St., Stratford, died Thursday at the Boone County Hospital of heart failure. Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the South Marion United Methodist Church south of Stratford, with the Rev. Kent Kastler and Gina Spohnheimer officiating. Burial will be in the South Marion Cemetery south of Stratford.

She was born June 22, 1915, in Boone County, the daughter of Oscar and Manda (Anderson) Nelson. She attended Jordan School in Jordan and married John Knuth in Boone on March 15, 1940. She and her husband farmed in Hamilton County south of Stratford until December of 1978, when they built a home and moved into Stratford. She was a member of the South Marion United Methodist Church, United Methodist Women, Order of the Eastern Star Magi Chapter 139 and AARP. She enjoyed reading, sewing, quilting, cooking and camping at Don Williams Lake.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters Nettie Baker and Thelma Magnuson, an infant brother Enfred and a great nephew. Survivors include her husband of Stratford; two brothers, Clifford Nelson and Orvil Nelson, both of Boone; and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be from noon until 9 p.m. Sunday at Schroeder Memorial Chapel, Sixth and Marshall streets, Boone, with family present from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Visitation continues from 9:30 a.m. until service time Monday at the church.

Memorials may be given to the South Marion United Methodist Church. Schroeder Memorial Chapel at Sixth and Marshall streets, Boone, is in charge of the arrangements.
