Frances Jean Peterson was born on September 13, 1927, to Fred and Fern D. (Hulsizer) Peterson at home in Legrand, Iowa. She attended school in the area of her birth. On February 18, 1945, Frances married Ronald E. Matney Sr. in Marshalltown. They resided in Marshalltown, Lamoille, and Excelsior Springs Missouri.

Frances had retired after 20 years at H and R Block. She had also been a member of the American Legion Auxiliary for 28 years. The most important thing in Frances's life was her family. She also enjoyed camping, going to the Vet's Hall, and the casinos.

She will be missed by her children, Dennie (Rhonda) Matney of Poplar Bluff, Missouri and Kennie (Martha) Matney of Excelsior Springs, Missouri; her ten grandchildren; and her 20 great-grandchildren.

In death, she rejoins her parents; her husband Ronald; her son, Ronald Jr.; her daughter and son-in-law, Connie and Donald Grein; her grandson, Jason Matney; her great-grandson, Dillan; her great-granddaughter, Audrey; her sisters, Shirley Allen and Wilma McGehee; and her brother, Bob Peterson.
