

OBITUARIES

Elizabeth B. Goodman, 91

Elizabeth B. Goodman, 91, of Asheville, NC, passed away Friday, April 16, 2004.

She is survived by her two daughters, Marilyn J. Smith and husband Ron of Houston, TX and Martha Jeanne Hawkins and husband Don of Asheville, NC; five grandchildren, Daniel G. Smith and wife, Andi, of Menlo Park, CA, David L. Hawkins of Asheville, NC, Jeanne E. Dagradi and husband Eric of Alexandria, VA, Mark A. Hawkins and wife Lynn of Concord, NC, and Anne K. Browning and husband Shawn of Bayou Vista, TX; and four great-grandchildren, Matthew Hawkins, 6, Emilia Dagradi, 4, Megan Hawkins, 3, and Zachary Browning, 1.

Elizabeth was born Sep. 10, 1912, to Bertha and Arthur Phillips. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold G. Goodman. She is survived by Nellie Bohrisch, Springfield, MO, Clarence Rittierodt, Salem, OR, LaDora Buck, Henderson, NV, Ed Vogt, Davenport, IA, Mary Lois Pineau, Vienna, VA, Michael Rittierodt, Wentzville, MO and other relatives.

Betty, as she was known to many, and her husband lived and raised their family on a farm near Melbourne, IA. She was a member of the Melbourne Evangelical and Reformed Church and was active in many church and community activities. Following her husband's death she moved to Fairfield Bay, AR and finally made her home in Asheville, NC where she was active at Grace Episcopal Church and volunteered at Mission Hospital. She was a willing teacher to anyone who wanted to knit, quilt, or crochet. Always wearing a smile she will be missed by all of her family and many friends.

Memorial Services are Saturday, April 24 at 10 AM at Grace Episcopal Church. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials be made to Grace Episcopal Church, Asheville, NC, or St. John's Evangelical & Reformed Church, Melbourne, IA. Graveside services will be held at Rose Hill Cemetery, Marshalltown, IA at a later time.
