

A. F. Pike Dies; Rites At Rhodes

Albertus Francis Pike, 82, 509 W. Church St., died Monday at the Story County Hospital in Nevada, where he had been a patient for five weeks. He previously was bedfast in the home of his daughter, Mrs. James B. Gray, north of Rhodes, for 12 weeks.

Tuesday afternoon the body was taken to Mrs. Gary's home and on Wednesday it will be taken to the Rhodes Methodist Church where services will be at 2 p.m. in charge of the Rev. L. A. Whiteside, assisted by the Rev. B. O. Duncan of Marshalltown. Burial will be in Eden Cemetery of Rhodes.

BORN JAN. 31, 1877, south of Maxwell, Mr. Pike was the son of Francis and Sarah Ann Pike. He received his education in rural schools and farmed with his father until Jan. 10, 1900.

United in marriage to Lulu Florence Walker, Rhodes, the couple lived on a farm south of Maxwell for one year. In March 1901 they moved to a farm in State Center township and in 1908 purchased a farm near Rhodes, where, they lived until Jan. 1945, retiring and moving to Marshalltown.

MR. PIKE was active in Rhodes community affairs serving on the board of education for 18 years, a member of the town council for a longer term and also serving on the township board. He was a member of the Church of Brethren.

Surviving is the widow, the daughter, Mrs. Gray, a son, Glenn Oliver of Boone, six grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.
