

OBITUARIES FROM PURSEL-DAVIS FUNERAL HOME MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA

(Source: http://www.funeralquestions.com/obits/pursel-davis/memorial_index.asp)

Dori Poffenberger

Born: October 06, 1920

Died: August 18, 2004

Services will be held at: at 10:30 A.M. on Saturday, August 21, 2004 at the Word Of Promise Church in Marshalltown with Pastor Terry Fristoe officiating. Burial will follow services at Riverside Cemetery in Marshalltown.

Dori was born October 6, 1920 in Iowa Falls, Iowa the daughter of James and Ethel (Leach) Rush. She was raised and educated in Iowa Falls where she attended the Iowa Falls School System. Dori was united in marriage to Floyd Kinley on September 19, 1947 in Waterloo, Iowa. Following their marriage they made their home in Colorado where she raised their family. In 1968 she moved back to Iowa Falls where she worked as a nurses aide at the Iowa Falls Hospital and Nursing Home. In 1970 Dori moved to Marshalltown. Dori was united in marriage to Maynard Poffenberger on July 23, 1971 in Omaha, Nebraska. Dori was employed by the Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown for over 17 years as a nurses aide. Dori enjoyed embroidery and stitching, dancing and music, but most of all she enjoyed spending time with her family and traveling with her grandchildren. Dori is survived by her husband Maynard, her daughters Lynda (Dean) Calkins of Marshalltown, Donna Kinley of Marshalltown, and Robyn Kinley of Austin, Texas, her son Terry (Bonnie) Kinley of Santa Cruz, California, her seven grandchildren Jodi, Eric, Gail, Kenny, Justice, Adrian and Amanda, and her six great-grandchildren Alex, Chris, Alex, Logan, Angela and Andrew. Dori was preceded in death by her parents James and Ethel, her brothers Kenneth, Harold, and Ralph, her sister Mildred Bragg, and her daughter Debra Bekele.