

Jacin Powers, 30

Jacin Powers, 30, Des Moines and former Marshalltown resident, died Monday, July 29, 2002, north of Kansas City, MO, as the result of an automobile accident.

A Funeral Mass was celebrated Friday, Aug. 2 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Marshalltown with Fr. Bernard Grady officiating. He was laid to rest in the Rose Hill Memorial Gardens in Marshalltown. The Estel-Perrin-Avey Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Born on January 5, 1972, Jacin was the eldest of two sons born to Timothy and Claudia (Roy) Powers. He was born in Marshalltown and received his education there as well, graduating from MHS Class of 1990. Jacin was employed in Des Moines at the time of his death.

He will be fondly remembered as a loving son, brother, grandson, cousin, nephew and friend who was known as the family jokester and story-teller. He enjoyed fishing trips with his dad, water sports (especially skiing), cars and playing cards (500) as well as horses, Tae Kwon Do, bowling, country-western dancing and enjoying life in general. His life was all too short, but meaningful to all who loved him. He will be greatly missed by many.

Left to mourn his loss are his parents, Tim and Claudia Powers of Marshalltown, his only brother, Kevin of Melbourne, his foreign exchange sister Annemarie Staub-Berlinger of Switzerland, his daughter Haley, grandmother Evelyn Roy of Mabel, MN, grandparents Philip and Vada Powers of Richmond, VA, aunts and uncles: Jeanette (Lloyd) Yocum of Mabel, MN, Connie (Jim) Adair and Sandra (Larry) Messer, both of Marshalltown, Judy (Bill) Roads of Haverhill, Steve Roy of Mabel, MN, Philip Powers of Maryland and Scott (Monica) Powers in Virginia. Also surviving him are numerous cousins and a host of friends.

In death, he has rejoined his grandpa Phillip Roy and cousin Jim Yocum.
