FRANCES VASEY

Ames

Frances Shirley Vasey, 79, of Ames died of complications of Alzheimer's disease at Riverside Manor there. Services will be at 10 a.m. Monday at Memorial Lutheran Church in Nevada, of which she was a member. Burial will be at Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Mrs. Vasey was born in Nevada and had lived there most of her life before moving to Ames in 1990. She was a homemaker.

She is survived by a son, Gary of Nevada; a daughter, Krisann Reschly of Nashville, Tenn.; a brother, Jeff Rasmusson of Nevada; two sisters, Myrtle Sampson of Story City and Burdella Bennett of Des Moines; and four grandchildren.

Friends may call from 1 to 8 p.m. Sunday at Chet Ryan Mortuary in Nevada, where the family will be present from 6 to 8 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to her church.

MRS. William

OCT. 26, 1918-JULY 30, 1998

Frances Shirley Vasey, 79, of Ames and formerly of Nevada, died of complications from Alzheimer's disease Thursday at Riverside Manor. Funeral services are 10 a.m. Monday at Memorial Lutheran Church in Nevada, with the Rev. Ellen C. Taube officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Frances Shirley Vasey was born in rural Nevada, the daughter of Lewis and Bertha (Hall) Rasmusson. She graduated from Milford High School. She married Henry R. Vasey, who was killed in World War II. On Jan. 9, 1947, she married William W. Vasey at St. John's Church in Des Moines. She was a member of Memorial Lutheran Church in Nevada. She was a homemaker who enjoyed quilting, sewing and cooking.

Survivors include a son, Gary Vasey of Nevada; a daughter, Krisann Reschly of Nashville, Tenn.; a brother, Jeff Rasmusson of Nevada; two sisters, Myrtle Sampson of Story County and Burdella Bennett of Des Moines; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

She was preceded in death by both husbands, two brothers, three sisters and two infant sisters.

Visitation is Sunday from 1 to 8 p.m., with the family present from 6 to 8, at Chet Ryan Mortuary in Nevada.

A memorial fund has been established in her name at Memorial Lutheran Church in Nevada.
