

Clifford Reed, 98, Marshalltown

Mr. Clifford Reed, 98, of the Glenwood Place in Marshalltown, died early Tuesday morning, October 28th, at his home while in their loving care, his family and the Iowa River Hospice.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, November 1, at the Albion Presbyterian Church with Pastor Bea Lebuda officiating. He was laid to rest in the Marietta Cemetery west of Marshalltown. Memorials may be directed to the Albion Presbyterian Church or Iowa River Hospice in his memory. For condolences, please visit www.mitchellfh.com. Ph 641-844-1234.

Born on July 28th, 1910, in rural Marshall County west of Marshalltown, he was the son of Charles and Emma (Harris) Reed. He received his education in the rural Marshall County schools and later in Marshalltown.

On November 8th, 1938, he was united in marriage to Lois Richards at her parent's home in rural Albion. The couple farmed west of Marshalltown until moving into town upon retirement in the early 1980s. They later moved to Glenwood Place in August of 2004. They shared 65 years of marriage when she passed away on September 25th, 2004. Clifford had attended the Albion Presbyterian Church and dearly treasured time and events shared with his family. He was a hard-working gentleman who appreciated farming and enjoyed woodworking and latch hook.

Left to cherish his memory is his three daughters: Beverly (Charles) Bru of rural Gladbrook, Janet Reed of Marshalltown and Virginia (Roger) Foelske of Indianola, six grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren and his family at Glenwood Place.

In death he has rejoined his parents, loving wife Lois, sister Mildred Riemen-schneider and brother Max who died in infancy.
