Marilyn Joyce Poole was born on January 3, 1929, in Marshalltown. She was the daughter of Raymond and Vivian (Gifford) Poole. She attended Marshalltown High School and later finished and received her high school diploma at age 40. On December 24, 1959, Marilyn married Bill Reiser in Reno, Nevada. The couple lived in Lamoille for 30 years and then moved to Marshalltown in 2001.

Marilyn worked at the Iowa Veterans Home in the late 1940's and again in the 1970's. She then worked at Mid Iowa Community Action until she retired in 1982 to take care of her mother in her own home until her death. Marilyn enjoyed playing Bingo, crocheting, and making dolls for her children and grandchildren.

In death, she has rejoined her father Raymond Poole; her mother Vivian Hicks; her stepmother Ella Mae Poole; her son, Charles, her brother, Dean Hudson; her twin brother and sister, Delbert and Shari Poole; her two sons-in-law, Stephen Pemberton and Ward Williams; her grandson, Marcus Babinat, an infant grandson, and her great-grandson, Thomas Zednichek.
