

LOWELL RHODES

Marshalltown

Lowell "Tuck" Rhodes, 70, of Marshalltown died of a heart ailment Monday at Mercy Medical Center in Des Moines. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday at First Congregational Church in Marshalltown, of which he was a member. Burial will be at Riverside Cemetery there.

Mr. Rhodes was born in Collins and had lived in Marshalltown most of his life. He was a retired photographer with Apgar Photography, an Army veteran of the Korean War and a member of Marshall County I Club and the state and national professional photographers associations. He had been a youth sports coach and was an avid sports fan and an outdoorsman.

He is survived by his wife, Marilyn; a daughter, Piper Harlan of Des Moines; three sons, Kent of Lisle, Ill., Kevin of Hugo, Minn., and Eric of Cedar Falls; four sisters, Reva Rhodes, Pauline Kemmerer, Mildred Rowden and Thelma Ross, all of Marshalltown; two brothers, Merrill of Zearing and Norman of Calera, Ala.; and three grandchildren.

Friends may call from 5 to 9 p.m. today at Pursel-Davis Funeral Home and Crematory in Marshalltown, where the family will be present from 6 to 8 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to the Tuck Rhodes Memorial Fund.
