Dennis Richeson Dies Following Injury In Crash

STATE CENTER — (Special)
— Dennis F. (Fleet) Richeson, 86, of State Center died Tuesday afternoon at Marshalltown Area Community Hospital where he had been a patient since sustained serious injuries in an auto accident near State Center last Thursday.

Born Sept. 30, 1887, in Marshall County, he was the son of George and Belle Booth Richeson. He received his education in the rural schools in the area of his birth four miles south of State Center.

On Dec. 31, 1913, at State Center, he was married to Gertrude Saxauer and they farmed south of State Center until retiring in 1961.

Preceding him in death were three sisters and six brothers.

Surviving are the widow of State Center and daughter, Mrs. E. R. (Viola) Maynard, New Providence. Also surviving are one grandson and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be from the Wensel-Perrin Funeral Home at 1:30 p.m. Thursday with the Rev. L. R. Meinecke, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and the Rev. Kenneth Sanders of Eldora, officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery.
