

Walter Richmond Dies Thursday; Rites Saturday

Walter E. Richmond, 74, of 205 N. 15th St. died at his home Thursday morning.

Born Feb. 17, 1897, in Rhodes, he was the son of Alonzo and Amanda Beard Richmond. He received his education and grew to manhood in Rhodes.

In September 1921, he was married to Grayce Weatherman in Marshalltown and they had always made their home in this city. Mr. Richmond was employed as an orderly at the Iowa Soldiers Home prior to being employed as a machine operator at Fisher Controls for 15 years until his retirement.

WWI Vet

During World War I, he served with the Coast Artillery, Headquarters Detachment 30 of the Artillery Brigade, from April 26, 1917, to January 25, 1919.

Preceding him in death were his parents, a sister and a brother.

Mr. Richmond was a member of World War Barracks No. 1104.

Surviving are the widow and two children, Richard A. Richmond of Bellwood, Ill., and Mrs. Donna Wilson of Glendale Heights, Ill. Also surviving are seven grandchildren, five sisters, Mrs. Maude Hale and Mrs. John (Hattie) Williams both of Rhodes, Mrs. Will (Minnie) Liebsle of Waterloo, Mrs. Charles (Wilda) Sarsfield of McCallsburg and Mrs. Paul (Flora) Schonwald of Phoenix, Ariz.

Services will be from the chapel of Estel-Perrin Funeral Home at 1:30 p.m. Saturday with the Rev. James Standiford, pastor of the Church of the Open Bible and the Rev. Neil Gale of Cedar Rapids, in charge. Burial will be in Rose Hill Memorial Gardens with Flag Folding Ceremonies by World War Barracks No. 1104.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
