

Mrs. Robinson

Rhodes, Dies

May 28 1955
Mrs. Bertha Robinson, 70, of Rhodes died of a heart ailment Wednesday at Evangelical Hospital. Services will be conducted by the Rev. E. H. Shuey at 2 p.m. Saturday at Rhodes Methodist Church. Burial will be in Eden Cemetery.

MRS. ROBINSON was the widow of John T. Robinson, who died in 1937. Born at Maxwell, she had lived on a farm north of Rhodes until 1952, when she moved into town.

Ten children survive: Orville and Charles, Mingo; Ralph and Leo, Vallejo, Calif.; Raymond, Mrs. Gerald Wilson and Mrs. Lyle Wall, Waterloo; Mrs. Theodore Evans, St. Anthony; Miss Marcella, Dubuque, and Mrs. Robert Trimble, Marshalltown.

ALSO SURVIVING are two sisters, Mrs. D. W. Richeson of Marshalltown and Mrs. Leo Perry of Des Moines, and 21 grandchildren.

Boyd-Nickel Funeral Home, Baxter, has charge of the service.

BERTHA ROBINSON

May 5, 1885

May 25, 1955

70 years, 20 days

Services

Methodist Church

Rhodes, Iowa

Saturday, May 28, 1955

2 P. M.

Clergyman

Rev. Edward H. Shuey

Music

Mrs. E. S. Haas, Pianist

Duet:

Mrs. Delmar Wilson Mrs. Granger Buck

Floral Arrangement

Mrs. William Guthrie

Mrs. Hubert Alexander

Mrs. Hale Nickell

Pallbearers

Luther Hix Granger Buck

Russell Buck Earl Snowgren

Maynard Good Carroll Failor

Interment

Eden Cemetery

Rhodes, Iowa