

Bonnie Jean Moore

JULY 17, 1933 OCT. 3, 2007

Bonnie Jean Moore, 74, died Wednesday, Oct. 3, at Hubbard Card Center after a lengthy illness with Alzheimer's disease. Memorial services will be at 11 a.m. Monday, Oct. 8, at Bacon Funeral Chapel in Nevada, with the Rev. Jim Allerd, hospice chaplain, officiating.

Bonnie Jean Moore was born July 17, 1933, in Dundee, Ill., to Laverne and Irene Ryan. She married Earl Moore Nov. 9, 1957. They lived in Dundee for a few years, moved to Geneva, Ill., and then moved to Colo. Together, they owned and operated Twin Anchors Campground for 22 years until they retired. They also expanded the business to include the R.V. Sales and Service and the golf club and course.

Throughout her life, she loved to see people enjoying themselves and would put her all into organizing special events, including her children's birthday parties as well as weekend campground entertainment. She long will be remembered by many for the joy she brought through her love of entertaining.

She is survived by her husband of almost 50 years, Earl Moore, of Colo; two daughters, Lynn Moore, of Portland, Ore., and Lori Butler, of Watertown, Wis.; one son Don (Bobby) Moore, of Nevada; two step-grandchildren; and two brothers, Daniel (Sharon) Ryan, of Brandford, Ontario, Canada, and David (Cary) Ryan of Cape Coral, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Dicky.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 7, at Bacon Funeral Chapel in Nevada.

Memorials may be made in her memory to the Alzheimer's Association, Greater Iowa Chapter, 1730 28th St., West Des Moines, IA 50266.

Caldwell Raddatz Funeral Home and Crematory of Urbandale is in charge of arrangements.
