

THE RHODES TRIBUNE

Friday, April 13, 2001

Robert Wayne Schelker

Robert Wayne Schelker, former Rhodes resident, died February 19, 2001, at Moravia, Iowa. He was the son of Fred and Pearl (Freland) Schelker. He attended the Rhodes School and graduated in 1946.

Robert was retired from the Army and then moved to Albia, IA., before moving to Moravia. Burial was at the Keokuk National Cemetery in Keokuk, IA.

He is survived by his wife, children; a sister Lorraine (Roland) Staker of Tama; two brothers, Richard Schelker Sr. of Albia, and Carroll Schelker of Crestview, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his parents. (His brother Richard passed away one month later)