

THE RHODES TRIBUNE

"Bringing past and present Rhodes residents together"

Vol. 5 No. 2

Circulation 191

Friday, February 13, 1998

Subscription - $12 Annually

Rhodes, Iowa 50234

Friday, February 13, 1998, THE RHODES TRIBUNE, pg. 3

IN REMEMBRANCE

THE RHODES TRIBUNE is published the second Friday of the month by the Rhodes Historical Society.

Editor: Alice Karsjen, Box 77, Rhodes, IA, 50234

Chief Reporter and Photographer: Sharon Meyer, 515-493-2469

Proofreader: Linda Wells

Subscription price - $12 for 12 issues

Copies of back issues - $1 per issue

Call 515-493-2717 if you have items for the paper. We reserve the right to edit stories submitted for publication.

Betty Schuler, 59 of State Center, died Saturday, January 17, 1998, at Marshalltown Medical & Surgical Center. Services were held Thursday at New Hope Christian Church, with burial in Rose Hill Memorial Gardens. Memorials may be directed to the New Hope Christian Church which she attended.

She was born May 15, 1938, the daughter of Arthur and Eunice Shill Faircloth, at Laurel. She was a graduate of Rhodes High School in 1955.

She married Merlyn Schuler on March 23, 1956, in Melbourne and he survives. She was primarily a homemaker, but worked briefly at Marshalltown Instruments, Donnelly's, Kiowa and was a cook at West Marshall.

We want to extend our sympathies to her four daughters, two sons, three sisters, and two brothers, Ilene Schuler Jones, of Rhodes, and the rest of the family.