

EARL SCHWIENEbart

Baxter

Earl Max Schwienebart, 78, of Baxter died Monday of a heart ailment at Skiff Medical Center in Newton. The body was cremated, and graveside services will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at Restland Cemetery in Marshalltown.

Mr. Schwienebart was born near Baxter and had lived in the area most of his life. He also had lived in Washington state and Conrad. He was a retired farmer and enjoyed fishing and traveling.

Surviving are two daughters, Erlene Leonard of Colfax and Kaylene Reardon of Phoenix; a sister, Margaret Levis of Marshalltown, and three grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Allene.

Friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m. today at Boyd-Davis Funeral Home in Baxter. Memorial contributions may be made to the Baxter or Colfax rescue units.

d. 12-10-2001

Dos Moines

Register

12-12-2001