were held on Sunday,

August 16, 2009, at Kruse-

Phillips Funeral Home in

Tama with Father Don

Czapla officiating.

Interment will be private.

Robert was born on April 30, 1939, in Marshalltown, the son of

Ted and Garnet (White)

Shaw. He was united in marriage to Genevieve

Kupka in April of 1978, at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Tama. Robert-served his country in the U.S. Navy.

He served aboard the USS Haleakala as a cook. He later worked at Lennox in Marshalltown in assembly and also a forklift operator.

Robert retired from

Lennox in 2001 after more than thirty years of service.

He enjoyed collecting

Lennox memorabilia.

Robert had a lifelong love of animals and cooking. He also liked to work on cars.

Robert was a very social person, and was very fun loving. He enjoyed his mother's cooking, especially her peas and dumplings.

He was preceded in death by his father, Ted; and his wife, Genevieve, on October 31, 2007.

Survivors include two daughters, Lorinda (S.

Jeremiah) Lamb, and Lisa

Lacko, all of Marshalltown;

his mother, Garnet Shaw of Marshalltown; two grandsons, Shawn Branan of Jefferson, Oregon, and

Chase Reeves of

Marshalltown; and two sisters, Caroline Shaw of Marshalltown, and Linda

(Jack) Atkin of Lompac,

California.

A memorial fund has been established.
