

Shearer, Donald L.

Ames
Tribune

9-10-2002

Donald L. Shearer

Donald L. Shearer, 83, of Marshalltown, died Sept. 5 of heart failure at his home. Services will be at 1 p.m. Monday at Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown. Burial will be in Gilbert Lutheran Church Cemetery.

Donald L. Shearer graduated from Shipley High School. He served in the U.S. Military Police during World War II. He worked as a meat cutter with the Grounds Shop at Iowa State for 17 years. He also owned the Ding Dong Grocery and Donut Shop in Craig. He was a member of Gilbert Lutheran Church and the Gilbert Volunteer Fire Department.

He is survived by his wife, Lois Shearer of Marshalltown; three sons, Daniel Shearer of Scottsdale, Ariz., Jeffrey Shearer of Nevada and Timothy Shearer of Casey; two daughters, Rebecca McCarthy of Omaha, Neb., and Susan Carlsen of Ames; one sister, Ada Sargent of Webster City; one brother, Harold Shearer of Boone; six grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be one hour prior to the service at Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown.

Caldwell-Raddatz Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.