

Shenkle, William B.d. 11-15-2000

Des Moines
Register
11-18-2000

WILLIAM SHENKLE
Marshalltown

William B. Shenkle, 71, of Marshalltown died of a lung ailment Wednesday at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines. Services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at First Congregational Church in Marshalltown. Private family burial will be at Collins Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Shenkle was born in Colo and had lived in the St. Anthony and Marshalltown areas most of his life. He was a retired section foreman with Chicago and North Western Railway and a member of St. Anthony Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Peggy; a son, James Uhde of Montgomery, Ala.; three daughters, Renee Dolash of Eldora, Jeana Vraoeuburg of Fort Madison and Janace Knapp of Rochester, N.Y.; two brothers, John of Shenandoah and Frank of Marshalltown; and seven sisters, Frances Rowe, Hildred Spence, Arlene Crepps, Jean Day and Shirley Nichalson, all of Marshalltown, Bernice Brownfield of Colo and Sherry Merer of Ames.

Memorial contributions may be made to his church or Iowa River Hospice Building Fund. Neptune Cremation Society of Iowa is handling arrangements.

WILLIAM SHENKLE
Marshalltown

William B. Shenkle, 71, of Marshalltown died of a lung ailment Wednesday at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines. Services were Sunday in Marshalltown. Private burial of the remains will be at Collins Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Shenkle was born in Colo and had lived in the St. Anthony and Marshalltown areas most of his life. He was a retired section foreman with Chicago and North Western Railway and a member of St. Anthony Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Peggy; a son, James Uhde of Montgomery, Ala.; three daughters, Renee Dolash of Eldora, Jeana Vradenburg of Fort Madison and Janace Knapp of Rochester, N.Y.; two brothers, John of Shenandoah and Frank of Marshalltown; seven sisters, Frances Rowe, Hildred Spence, Arlene Cripps, Jean Day and Shirley Nicholson, all of Marshalltown, Bernice Brownfield of Colo and Sherry Meier of Ames; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to his church or Iowa River Hospice Building Fund. Neptune Cremation Society of Iowa is handling arrangements.