

THE RHODES TRIBUNE

"Bringing Past and Present Rhodes Residents Together"

Vol. 11, No. 4

March, April, 2004

Rhodes, Iowa 50234

Lois Shill, 86, formerly of 1008 S. 11th Avenue, died Monday, February 9, 2004, at Glenwood Place. Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Friday at the First United Methodist Church with Revs. Jerald Swanberg and Jennifer Daniel officiating. She was laid to rest in, the Rose Hill Memorial Gardens. Lois was born March 11, 1917, in Melbourne, Iowa, the daughter of James and Mae (Oler) Green. She was raised and educated in Rhodes, Iowa, graduating from high school there. On May 18, 1946, in Ames, she was united in marriage to Clarence E. Shill, and they resided the majority of their married life in Marshalltown. She was a member of the White Shrine, Eastern Star, American Legion Auxiliary, First United Methodist Church and several church groups.

Survivors include her husband Clarence of Marshalltown; son Mark (Pam) Shill of Ames; two granddaughters, Megan Shill of Kansas City, Mo and Melissa Shill of Ames. Also surviving are two brothers, Robert Green of Statesville, N.C. and Richard Green of Champagne, Ill.; one sister. Marjory Grove of Gladbrook; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents.