Howard Arthur Skinner
March 28, 2002

Oct. 23, 1914, to March 25, 2002

Howard Arthur Skinner, 87, of rural Maxwell, died Monday, March 25, at his home from a kidney ailment.

Howard was born Oct. 23, 1914, near Mingo, to Arthur and Gladys (Parker) Skinner. He married Lucille Baldwin on March 5, 1938, in Farrar. He graduated from Mingo High School in 1934. He was a farmer and farmed all of his life. He also worked for the Little Giant Crane Company of Des Moines for many years and retired in 1979. He was a member of the Loring United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Lucille, of Maxwell; a son, James H. (and Sharon) Skinner of White Oak; a daughter, Marla Kay (and Robert) Barnes of Mitchellville; seven grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; and a sister, Dorothy Hunerdosse, of Indianola.

His parents and two brothers, Dale and Walter Skinner, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Loring United Methodist Church with the Rev. Don Carlson officiating. Burial was in the Ashton Cemetery northeast of Mingo. Memorials may be made to the Loring United Methodist Church. The Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell handled arrangements.
