

Smith, Claude A. J. 10-11-2004

Nevada
Journal
10-14-2004

Claude Archer Smith

Claude Archer Smith, Sr., 71 of rural Nevada died of cancer on Monday, October 11 at the Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, October 14 at 1:00 P.M. the First Christian Church-Disciples of Christ in Nevada with Pastor Brice Hughes officiating. Burial with military rites will follow in the Nevada Municipal Cemetery.

Claude was born on August 8, 1933 in Red Oak, Iowa to Newton Jasper and Hazel Lucille (Halbert) Smith. He was a 1951 graduate of Red Oak Community High School. Claude served in the Air Force during the Korean Conflict. On June 12, 1955, Claude married Dorothy Marie Mauderly in Kansas City, Missouri. He was a resident of Red Oak for 48 years prior to moving to Nevada. Claude owned Smitty's Super Valu from 1981 until his retirement in 1994. Claude enjoyed camping, traveling, fishing and being with his children and grandchildren.

Claude is survived by his wife Dorothy Smith of Nevada; 2 sons, Randy (Julie) Smith of Grinnell and Claude (Christie) Smith of Nevada; a daughter, Lori (Mike) Van Wyk of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; 6 grandchildren; 2 brothers, Jim (Darlene) Smith of Virginia Beach, Virginia and Dick (Sue) Smith of Stuart; 5 sisters, JoAnn (Joe) Blanda of Winter, Wisconsin, Patty (Richard) Carlson of Madison, Wisconsin, Mary (Joe) Fields of Oneida, Tennessee, Marilyn (Gary) Hardman of Red Oak, Iowa and Rose Dunn of Hannibal, Missouri.

Claude is preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Mike Smith.

A memorial fund has been established. Chet Ryan Mortuary, Nevada, is handling arrangements.

October 14, 2004

Claude Archer Smith

Aug. 8, 1933 to Oct. 11, 2004

Claude Archer Smith, Sr., 71 of rural Nevada died of cancer on Monday, October 11 at the Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, October 14 at 1:00 P.M. the First Christian Church-Disciples of Christ in Nevada with Pastor Brice Hughes officiating. Burial with military rites will follow in the Nevada Municipal Cemetery.

A memorial fund has been established. Chet Ryan Mortuary, Nevada, is handling arrangements.

Claude was born on August 8, 1933 in Red Oak, Iowa to Newton Jasper and Hazel Lucille (Halbert) Smith. He was a 1951 graduate of Red Oak Community High School. Claude served in the Air Force during the Korean Conflict. On June 12, 1955, Claude married Dorothy Marie Mauderly in Kansas City, Missouri. He was a resident of Red Oak for 48 years prior to moving to Nevada. Claude owned Smitty's Super Valu from 1981 until his retirement in 1994. Claude enjoyed camping, traveling, fishing and being with his children and grandchildren.

Claude is survived by his wife Dorothy Smith of Nevada; 2 sons, Randy (Julie) Smith of Grinnell and Claude (Christie) Smith of Nevada; a daughter, Lori (Mike) Van Wyk of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; 6 grandchildren; 2 brothers, Jim (Darlene) Smith of Virginia Beach, Virginia and Dick (Sue) Smith of Stuart; 5 sisters, JoAnn (Joe) Blanda of Winter, Wisconsin, Patty (Richard) Carlson of Madison, Wisconsin, Mary (Joe) Fields of Oneida, Tennessee, Marilyn (Gary) Hardman of Red Oak, Iowa and Rose Dunn of Hannibal, Missouri.

Claude is preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Mike Smith.