

<http://www.nevada-iowa-journal.com/site/news.cfm?brd=2033>

September 02, 2004

Jacky Snowgren Makkestad

September 02, 2004

Death Notice

Jacky Snowgren Makkestad, 68, formerly of Marshalltown and Zearing, died at the Osage Rehabilitation and Health Care Center following an extended illness.

©Nevada Journal 2004

Thursday, September 2, 2004 - MID IOWA ENTERPRISE

OBITUARY

Jacky Snowgren Maakestad, 68

Jacky Snowgren Maakestad, 68 of Osage, former Marshalltown/Zearing resident, died at the Osage Rehabilitation and Health Care Center following an extended illness.

She was born to John Hildreth and Ruth Justine Bretthauer Snowgren. She graduated from Marshalltown High School and attended the University of Iowa. She taught music in Osage, Mitchell and Orchard schools, and was married to Edwin Maakestad of Osage.

Jacky is survived by her father John of Osage, a daughter Nichole of Des Moines, her son Jon of North Liberty and two grandchildren.

Services were held August 9 in Osage with burial in Rock Creek Cemetery.

The Snowgren's lived in Zearing before moving to Marshalltown in the Walter and Lydia Brandt and Leon Brandt and Jeff Brandt home. There was a produce shop where Max Dunlap's Parris store is now located on West Main Street. Several young men built egg cases for five cents apiece at the store, and many ladies candled eggs for the business.