

TAMMY MATTINGLY,
46

Tammy Mattingly, age 46, entered into eternal peace on April 7, 2009, and joined her mother Linda who preceded her to heaven in 1997.

Graveside funeral services were held Saturday, April 11th at the Rose Hill Memorial Gardens. For condolences, please visit www.mitchellfh.com. The Mitchell Family Funeral Home is caring for Tammy and her family. Ph 641-844-1234.

Left to cherish her memory is her beloved friend and companion of 23 years, David Moore; his children, Nichole, James, and Dustin; his grandchildren, Jasmine, Jordon, Jaquelyn, Dakota, and Damien; father, E. Eldon "Hillbilly" Mattingly; sister, Lois "Zack" Zakerolhosseini, her children, Lindsey, Brianna, Jonny, Kelly Laughlin, brother Brian, his children: Yolanda, Ariel, Tabitha, Cora, Ruth Ann; brother, Dusty; foster brother and sister, Kevin and Brenda LaPour; maternal grandmother, Ruth Spencer; maternal uncle, aunts and several cousins. Also surviving are David's parents, Don and Bev Ricius; sisters, Diane, Debbie, Darla, Dixie, Dottie and their children.

Tammy graduated from the Marshalltown High School's Class of 1982, became a Certified Nurses Aide, a trained welder, and worked along side David on several construction jobs, doing demolition, roofing, siding and drywalling, until ill health forced her to stop. Tammy still enjoyed visiting the sites and giving her advice and opinions regarding the job. Tammy loved being outdoors, and enjoyed going fishing and camping with her family and friends. Tammy loved and treasured her family and enjoyed spending time with them. Tammy was very supportive of her nieces and nephew's many activities, and went to as many of their events as her health allowed. Tammy was an avid Hawkeye fan, creating a friendly family rivalry with her dad and sister "the Cyclone fans". Tammy loved animals, especially her cats Tig and Marvin, who she spoiled rotten. Tammy was a known storyteller and practical jokester, she was well known for having a joke for all occasions. Tammy loved to laugh, tease and have fun. Tammy was a loving, giving person, who even in death continues her sharing nature. Tammy generously donated to the organ donor program so that others may continue to enjoy life and see the beauty in it that Tammy did. Tammy leaves us with many beautiful, loving memories and stories, to hold us, and keep us strong until we are all reunited again.

Tammy was preceded in death by her mother, Linda; maternal grandfather, Floyd Spencer; paternal grandparents, Nimon T. and Cora Mattingly.
