A celebration of Glenn's life was held Saturday, July 11th, at the Mitchell Family Funeral Home. He was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery. Glenn's family has requested that memorials be made to Iowa River Hospice or St. Henry's Catholic Church. For condolences, please visit www.mitchellfh.com. The Mitchell Family Funeral Home is caring for Glenn and his family, phone 641-844-1234.

Glenn was born November 10th, 1922, in Haverhill, to parents Arthur and Priscilla (Augustine) Staebler. Glenn attended school at St. Mary's. In 1942, Glenn joined the United States Marine Corps and served in Hawaii during World War II. Upon his honorable discharge in 1946, Glenn returned to Marshalltown. On September 10th, 1947 he was united in marriage to Mildred Gile Buchwald. The couple made their home in Marshalltown, where Glenn worked for R.D. Stewart.

Glenn enjoyed his carpentry work, and built his own home in 1957 where he and Mildred raised her children. He enjoyed ballroom dancing and was a member of the Elk's Lodge in Marshalltown, where he served as Exalted Ruler several times.

Left to mourn their loss, and celebrate Glenn's life, is his step-son, Robert (Mary) Buchwald of Marshalltown; his step-daughter, Sharon (Roger) Dent of Altoona; his grandchildren, Lynette Buchwald, Christopher Buchwald, and Scott Meeks; two great-grandchildren; his sisters, Irene Shrader and Lavonne Shearer, and his brother, Earl Staebler; as well as many friends.

In death, Glenn has rejoined his parents, his loving wife Mildred and two sisters who passed away in infancy.
