

The Des Moines Register DM
Saturday, February 15, 2003

FORMER RESIDENTS

Here is information about the deaths of former central Iowa residents who moved from the area more than 20 years ago:

Robert Steven Stewart, 54, of Minneapolis died of cancer Wednesday at Agape House there. The body was cremated, and memorial services will be at 3 p.m. Monday at First Christian Church in Albia. Mr. Stewart was born near Albia and had lived in the area until 1969. He had worked in the restaurant business in Minneapolis. Winfield Funeral Home in Albia is handling arrangements.