

Stokesbary Effie G.

THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 2005

d. 03 07 2005

OBITUARY

Effie G. Stokesbary

Feb. 11, 1908 to March 7, 2005

Effie G. Stokesbary, 97, of Nevada and formerly of Colo, died Monday, March 7, 2005 at Story Long Term Care in Nevada.

She was born on Feb. 11; 1908 near Iowa Center, the daughter of Charles C. and Sophronia Bell (Young) Stoops. She graduated from Gooddell High School. She was united in marriage to Ralph Arnold Stokesbary on July 2, 1926 in Miller, Iowa. Ralph preceded her in death April 30, 1960.

Effie was a homemaker and had worked at Donnelly's, Niland's Café, and the J&M Café in Colo. She was a member of the Colo United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women.

She is survived by six sons, Kenneth Ralph Stokesbary of Peoria, Ill., Carroll L. Stokesbary of Colo, Allen Arnold Stokesbary of Maxwell, Joseph Freeman Stokesbary of Colo, David Laverne Stokesbary of Gowrie and Douglas James Stokesbary of Phoenix City, Ala.; five daughters, Patricia Ann Hall of Waterloo, Eva Marie Akin of Raytown, Mo., Kathern Kay Bulanek of Milwaukee, Wis., Virginia Lee Walker of Elkhart and Donna Jean Kahler of Maxwell; 33 grandchildren; 71 great grandchildren; and 19 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; a daughter, Frances; and a great granddaughter, McKenzie Walkeman.

TRi'count 4
Times
3-24-2005