

OBITUARIES FROM PURSEL-DAVIS FUNERAL HOME MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA

(Source: http://www.funeralquestions.com/obits/pursel-davis/memorial_index.asp)

Marvalee Eipperle

Born: June 03, 1939

Died: March 23, 2004

Services will be held at: 10:00 A.M, on Monday, March 29, 2004, at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Marshalltown. Burial will follow services at the Riverside Cemetery. Visitation times are: 3:00 to 7:00 P.M. Sunday at the Pursel-Davis Funeral Home & Crematory, where the family will be present from 3:00 to 7:00 P.M. Memorials may be directed to the family in her name.

Marvalee Eipperle was born on June 3, 1939 in Wisner, Nebraska, the daughter of Clarence and Leota Wascher Stuckenschmidt. She graduated from Pender High School in 1957 in Pender, Nebraska. Marvalee was united in marriage with James Eipperle on February 8, 1959 in Pender, Nebraska. She was involved in Scouting as a den mother for all four of her sons. She managed the sewing department for Woolco for several years. Marvalee opened the Fashion Exchange consignment shop in 1976. In 2001 she sold the clothing store and moved the costume shop to the basement of her home. She was a member of the Redeemer Lutheran Church and the Red Hat Society. She enjoyed crafts, sewing, stamping and collecting antiques. The family enjoyed fishing and camping at their cabin in Minnesota. They enjoyed travel and wintered in Arizona. Marvalee loved her family, especially her grandchildren. Marvalee Eipperle is survived by husband: James Eipperle of Marshalltown, Iowa, son: Scott (Leigh) Eipperle of Marshalltown, son: Kevin (Wendi) Eipperle of Dubuque, son: Todd (Julie) Eipperle of Gladbrook, Iowa, son: Kyle (Carrie) Eipperle, Kiev, Ukraine, six grandchildren and one sister; Genene (Roger) Patton of Sun City, Arizona. She was preceded in death by: her parents.