

Dockery, Doris L. Swalwell
d. 6-22-2001

Doris Lucille Dockery, 76

Doris Lucille Dockery, 76, of Hoyt Lakes, Minn., died Friday, June 22, at home.

Services were held Tuesday, June 26, at Trinity United Methodist Church in Hoyt Lakes. Pastor Ruth Gangloff officiated.

Burial was in Memorial Cemetery in Hoyt Lakes. Military rites were performed by the Hoyt Lakes Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Obituary

Doris Lucille Swalwell Dockery was born in Collins on September 8, 1924, to Charles and Eva (Gardneo) Swalwell. She graduated from Maxwell High School and later worked at Deans Photo Studio in Des Moines. She enlisted in the U.S. Navy during World War II, where she served her country as a photographer, stationed in Washington, D.C. She was united in marriage with Fred Dockery on October 12, 1945 in Rockville, Md. Following her discharge from the Navy, they returned to Des Moines. They later moved to Hoyt Lakes, Minn., where they were active in the Methodist church, Hoyt Lakes Senior Citizens, Senior Bowling League, V.F.W. and Auxiliary, where she served as secretary and past president of the 8th District.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Harriett Good of Rhodes and Alice Meyer of Newton; three brothers Dudley and Gene of Maxwell and Everett Swalwell of Des Moines; and a great-grandson, James Spofish.

Survivors include her husband, Fred of Hoyt Lakes; a daughter, Patricia (Paul) Tekarotz of Hoyt Lakes; two brothers, Ralph (Nadine) Swalwell and Max (Jeanette) Swalwell, all of Maxwell; two sisters, Helen (Carl) Hagge of Ogden and Esther Brown of Maxwell; two grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Attending the funeral from Iowa were her brother, Max Swalwell of Maxwell; her sister, Helen Hagge of Ogden; Fred's sister, Betty Standley of Des Moines; and Fred's nephew, Michael Standley of Neola.

Tri County
Times
7-12-2001