(MRS. WALTER)

Services set for Helen M. Keagle, 88

Helen Mae Keagle, 88, of Maxwell died Saturday, April 6, of complications of Alzheimer's disease at Story County Hospital Long-Term Care in Nevada, where she had resided for many years.

The body has been donated to the University of Iowa Medical School. A memorial service is planned for 2:00 p.m., Saturday, April 20, at the Maxwell United Methodist Church. Pastor Jonathan Chadwick will officiate.

Obituary

Helen Keagle was born in Cambridge on March 6, 1908 to Charles and Ella (Fackler) Thompson. She was a lifetime resident of Story County. She had worked as a telephone operator. She graduated from Cambridge High School in 1926 and attended Iowa State Teachers College. She was united in marriage to Walter S. Keagle in Collins in 1932. She was a member of the Maxwell United Methodist Church and Order of the Eastern Star.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and a sister.

Survivors include a daughter, Jacqueline (Jackie) Halterman of Omaha, NE; a son, George Keagle of Des Moines; nine grandchildren; 10 great-grand-children; and a sister, Mrs. Paul (Charleen) Willey of Shawnee Mission, KS.

Cooper Funeral Home in Maxwell is handling the arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials to the Maxwell United Methodist Church or the Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Association.
