

IN REMEMBRANCE

Bryon Tribby, 76 of Southridge Nursing and Rehab Center, died Thursday, Nov. 14, at MMSC.

Services were held Tuesday, Nov. 19 at the Pursel-Davis Funeral Home & Crematory with Rev. Harry Lake officiating. Interment followed services in the Eden Cemetery, Rhodes.

Visitation was Monday, Nov. 18, at the Pursel-Davis Funeral Home & Crematory where the family was present. Memorials may be directed to the Byron L Tribby Memorial Fund.

Byron LeRoy was born Aug. 11, 1926, in Rhodes as the son of Ellis L. and Caddie (Gillman) Tribby. Bryon grew up in the Rhodes and State Center areas where he attended school. Due to Byron's health when he turned 18, he moved to the Woodward State Home for five years, the Marshall County Home for 46 years, Country Living Estates for five years and finally to Southridge Nursing & Rehab Center in May 2002.

Bryon loved country music, singing hymns, dancing and regularly attending church services at the various places that became his home.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters; Ruth Wignall, Esther Stone and Alice Severidt and four brothers; Allen, Bill, Lester and Gene. He is survived by two sisters, Edna Lanphere & Jennette Broyles, both of Marshalltown.
