Former Rhodes Principal Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Lester Tribby, prominent Rhodes resident and former principal of Rhodes High School for nine years, died early Thursday morning at Mercy Hospital. She was 46.

The victim of a lingering two-year illness, Mrs. Tribby had been hospitalized for three weeks. The body was taken to Boyd-Nichol Funeral Home at Baxter. Services will be at 2 p. m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church in Rhodes with the Rev. E. H. Shuey officiating. Burial will be at Rhodes Cemetery.

Mrs. Tribby was born Aug. 24, 1907 at Fremont. She was married June 15, 1938 at Nashua. Long active in civic affairs, she was a member of the Methodist Church, WSCS, Order of the Eastern Star, and the NW Club.

She is survived by the widower, a daughter, Carolyn Kay, a brother, Homer Haynes, and a sister, Mrs. Ora Burch of Fremont. Preceding her in death were a daughter who died in infancy, her parents and three brothers.
