Bill Tribby Dead At 65

June 24, 1982

Word has been received here of the death of a former resident, William L. (Bill) Tribby, 65, Waterloo, who died while vacationing in Barre, Vt. Services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Chapel of Memories in Waterloo.

He was born Feb. 14, 1917, at Rhodes, the son of Ellis and Cadie Gilman Tribby. He was graduated from Rhodes High School and farmed in that area before entering the service during World War II.

He was affiliated with Piggly Wiggly in Marshalltown before moving to Waterloo, where he retired in 1980.

He was married to Mildred Hardaway in December, 1944 at Newton. She preceded him in death in 1975.

Surviving are one son, Michael, and a granddaughter, Kalona; four brothers, Lester Tribby, Rochester, Mich.; Allen Tribby, State Center and Eugene Tribby and Byron Tribby, both of Marshalltown, and five sisters, Ruth Wignall, Esther (Mrs. Milton) Stone, Edna (Mrs. Dick) Lanphere, and Jeannette Broyles, all of Marshalltown, and Alice (Mrs. Glen) Severidt, State Center.

Memorials may be directed to his son.
