OLIVE GREELEY

Word has been received by relatives of the death of a former area resident, Olive Troup Greeley, on May 21, 1982.

She was born in Collins on June 25, 1901, the daughter of Martin and Rose Randall Troup. After graduating from Maxwell High School she moved to Washington, D.C. where she was employed.

On June 10, 1937, she married Fred Greeley, and the couple lived in several foreign countries and in the United States working for the Smithsonian Institute as meteorologists. They retired to Laguna Hills, Calif., where Mr. Greeley died March 19, 1980.

Both are buried at Forest Lawn, Cypress, Calif.
