After her death, he looked forward to his "mini" vacations to Minnesota for all of the holidays and especially Christmas when all of his family would gather together. He was very proud to watch or hear about his children's and grandchildren's events and accomplishments, attending as many as he could. He enjoyed gardening, dancing (polka's were his favorite), reading, eating Georgie's great food, his dog Barney, watching sporting events and rooting for his favorite baseball team, the Chicago Cubs. He was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

Carl is survived by four daughters, Jean (Tom) Eaton, Albert Lea, Minnesota, Nancy (Steve) Creedy, Sydney, Australia, Carol (Mark) Henderson, Plantation, Florida, Rosemary (Dean) Hoover, Baltimore, Maryland and one son: Captain Carl J. (Maria) Uchytel, Juneau, Alaska; grandchildren, Andrew (Dr. Stephanie Truhlar) Eaton, San Diego, California, Dr. Jeffrey (Julie) Eaton, Faribault, Minnesota, Anna and Austin Hoover, Baltimore, Maryland, Gavin and Lauren Henderson, Plantation, Florida, Second Class Cadet Nicholas Herndon, New London, Connecticut, Dana Herndon, Miami, Florida, Carl Patrick and Claire Uchytel, Juneau, Alaska.

Carl was preceded in death by his parents, wife Georgia Ann on Sept. 12, 1987, brother Fred, and two sisters, Margret Duhacheck and Kathryn Weaver, nieces Gloria Uchytel Crooks, Marcia Duhacheck and nephew Dennis Weaver.

He was a very proud, quiet, gentle, caring and loving father and grandfather who will be greatly missed!
