

VandeKamp, 50, To Be Buried

This Monday

Aug 13 - 1966

George H. VandeKamp, 50, State Center, died suddenly at home Friday morning of a heart attack.

He was born on Aug. 31, 1915, at Prairie City, the son of Wynant and Mary Van Vliet VandeKamp. He grew up and received his education in the Laurel area.

On June 30, 1938, he married Vera Wilkinson in Missouri. They farmed in Marshall County until moving to the present farm seven miles southwest of State Center in 1954 where he had since lived.

Surviving besides the widow are three sons, Lonnie, Melbourne, Jerry, Rhodes, and Jon at home. Four sisters, Mrs. Viola Gobel, Mrs. Ralph Paul and Mrs. Oscar Newell, all of Gilman, and Mrs. Aaron Stuck, Des Moines survive as do four brothers, Gerrit, and Charles, Gilman, Edward, Kellogg, and Robert of Pella. Two grandchildren also survive.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday, from the Estel-Perrin Funeral Home Chapel, in charge of the Rev. Jack R. Hooten, Rhodes. Burial will be in Rose Hill Memorial Gardens.
