Jesse F. Vasey

Jesse Fay Vasey, son of William and Ana Vasey was born southwest of Collins in Jasper County April 12, 1878 and died in the Story County hospital in Nevada November 16, 1958, at the age of 80 years, 7 months and 4 days.

His boyhood and young manhood was spent near Collins with the exception of seven years spent in California. He returned to Iowa and on April 3, 1920 he was united in marriage with Miss Myra Hantrods who survives him. To this union was born two daughters, one dying at childbirth and Norma Dell who is now Mrs. Wm. Webb.

After his marriage the family lived on farms around Collins and they moved into Collins the spring of 1940, and resided here until his death.

He lived a useful life, believing in hard work, and was a hard worker and was always ready to help others in time of need.

He was hospitalized October 2, first in Iowa City, later in Des Moines and finally at Nevada, where his death occurred.

When a young man he joined the Methodist church in Collins, and was a firm believer in God. He was in failing health the last few years of his life.

His survivors are, his wife, Myra, daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Webb of Des Moines, two grandchildren, Johnnie Earl and Lisa Lynn Webb, two brothers, Charles G. Vasey and Raleigh J. Vasey, Collins, one sister, Mrs. Clara Hand of Nevada and several neices and nephews.
