

Vasey, Jessie Huntrods d. 10-19-1911

Obituary.

Jessie Huntrod was born near Jacksonville, Ill., Jan. 12th, 1888; died at her home near Collins, Iowa, Oct. 19th, 1911, age 23 yrs., 9 mos. and 7 days. She was married to Raleigh J. Vasey Jan 4th, 1911.

Jessie was from childhood a model christian girl, ever regardful of the rights and interests of others, willing always to sacrifice personal interests for the welfare of others. She was always interested in church and Sunday School work, and taught a Sunday School class at Peoria for several years. She was for several years a member of the Epworth League at Garland, Kans. and took an active part in League work. She was a member of the Sunday School Booster club at Peoria. She lived a sweet, loving life and died as she believed and lived, in the Christian faith and hope.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her mother, three brothers, two sisters, her husband and infant son. May their loss be her eternal gain.

The above obituary was read by the presiding minister, Rev. C. J. Nutt of Des Moines, who preached an appropriate and eloquent funeral sermon, in which he spoke words of deserved eulogy for the departed and consolation to the bereaved. The church was filled with an audience that felt the sacredness of the solemn exercises. Many could not get admission, so large was the crowd. An efficient choir from the church at Peoria sang beautiful spiritual songs, with Mrs. Harry Gibson at the organ. The floral offerings were copious and very beautiful.

The interment was at Collins Cemetery. The pall bearers were P. D. Ozmun, Wm. Crabb, Flavius Pritchard, Orpheus Pritchard, Harland Carver and Harry Gibson.

The sadness of the early death of deceased, the husband so soon bereft, the motherless babe, the stricken and heartsore mother, the sorely bereaved brothers and sisters, the many friends whose hearts were deeply touched with grief, were poignant facts that gave touching emphasis to the services.

Death of Mrs. Raleigh Vasey.

Mrs. Raleigh Vasey died at 1:15 this morning. It is a very sad occurrence. Since the birth of her baby she has been in a dangerous condition. Everything possible was done to save her life, but in vain. The sympathies of all our people go out to the bereaved ones.

The funeral will be at the M. P. church 2 p. m. Friday.
